

MARY CAMPBELL READS BOOKS

This is the first installment of what will be a regular feature on NBSRT social media platforms. Mary Campbell is a member of GMART who loves books and the places they can take us in our imaginations. She is also an accomplished writer who has the ability to make the many books she reads come to life on these pages. We hope you enjoy this new feature – be sure to leave a comment.

The Maid by Nita Prose

What a fun romp this was! A debut novel about a maid (named Molly) at an upscale hotel, who finds herself deeply involved in a murder mystery.

Quirky, funny, intricate, and charming are but a few of the words I would use in describing this book. Molly is a one-of-a-kind character who seems quite intelligent, takes great pride in her occupation, tries to be kind to everyone, is truthful, respectful, cheerful, and more than just a little obsessive.

She was raised by her grandmother from whom she learned most of what she knows and does. Her grandmother has died recently, and Molly is learning to live by herself.

Molly follows the same routine every day, until one day she finds the body of one of the hotel's occupants. Not long after, she becomes the #1 suspect! Now you must read on to find out whodunit.

There's an interesting cast of characters - Juan Manuel, Rodney, Giselle, Mr. Black, Det. Stark, Mr. Preston, Charlotte, Cheryl, Mr. Snow, and others - all of whom Molly will label as either good or bad 'eggs'.

Sarah Pearse says it best for me - "Molly the Maid has captured my heart! I loved this charming and utterly original whodunit - Molly is an eccentric and unforgettable sleuth . . . Put this on your to-read pile immediately."